Your child's teacher may choose to participate in Read to Feed, a reading incentive program designed by Heifer International, a nonprofit organization dedicated to ending world hunger and poverty while caring for the Earth. We hope you are proud that your child is joining other children who are changing the world. Sponsors set a pledge amount for each book read or unit of time spent reading – a quarter or a dollar, or any desired amount. At the end of the program, children collect their pledges, pool their money, and then decide what type of livestock they would like to buy for families in need. Dates to Mark on Your Calendar: November 10, program kickoff; November 15, pledge sheet filled out; November 15-December 14, Read!; December 10-13, collect money from pledges; December 14th, all money due. Physical Education

The week of November 8-14 was another week of successes for ANS athletics. On Tuesday, November 9, our Elementary chess players won a competition playing against 3 other schools from Managua. On Thursday, November 11, our Elementary gymnasts won a competition vs. other 3 schools. On Saturday, November 13, our Elementary and Middle School track & field team successfully participated in a Track & Field event in which even teams from Carazo were present. ANS was also present in a swimming competition at Colegio Aleman on November 13. Next week, the P.E. Department will send parents the Tiger News electronically with all the details of the sports activities in which all ANS students were involved during the first semester. Elementary students who participated in the extracurricular sports program will receive words of recognition during the December Tiger Meeting. On that day, all Elementary students who received medals in any of the competitions, either representing ANS or participating in intramural games over the first semester, will be allowed to wear them during the Tiger Meeting and lunch/recess time.

We remind you that all after-school activities end this week and will resume on January 17, 2011.
